«Roxbury, (Mass.)» Thinks that James S. Gibbons is probably in favor of free trade. The addressee had mentioned in an earlier letter that she and her husband had tea with the Gibbonses, on which occasion the tariff question was discussed. Refers to Helen Villard's health. Tells about returning to Rockledge. Went to hear O. B, Frothingham give "the opening lecture of the Free Religion course." Says that "yesterday morning the mercury was only 6 above zero ..." [221 East 18th St., N.Y.] The writer says he received a book written by Miss Field. Says he likes it and will read it through. Wants to publish a standard edition of acting plays. Is working on it now and on a book on costume. Says he is homesick for England. His wife and children are in Toronto?. Has worked hard since he left England. Asks whether his poems really amount to anything. Mentions H. Vezin, Bayard Taylor and Clarence Cook. Supposes Miss Field will be at the Paris Exhibition. Says that the theatrical business has been bad everywhere except in Boston. His father is dying in Cambridge Mass. Mrs. Cordelia Sanf[illegible]nvited him to Newport. New York is made hideous by an ele[illegible] railway. Asks if Miss Ward is coming from England. Wants to know what to do with Mr.Young's play.

«Roxbury, (Mass.)» Would like to spend part of the summer with H. F. (G.) V. and her children, if they do not go to Europe. "Mrs. Pamelia Hall (Mary Willey's sister) happily received her translation on Saturday night ..." It is not certain whether C. C. Burleigh "will recover from the ... accident which befell him a few days since ..." "William Craft's case is certainly an unfortunate one-to say the least."

.Roxbury, (Mass.). Is much relieved that Agnes Garrison has recovered from her serious illness. Went to a lecture by R. W. Emerson and tells who was there. W.L.G. "could get no very tangible idea as to the drift" of the lecture. Tells about recent social engagements attended by his children. Is glad to hear that Helen Villard is making good progress on the violin.

«Boston» Discusses the Chinese immigration question. Believes the attempt to exclude the Chinese is based on local politics primarily. Remarks on the great changes in public sentiment toward Slavery, but regrets the present hostile attitude of the Southerners toward the negroes. Refers to P. (C.) P.'s school in Connecticut. Mrs. Fayerweather, P. (C.) P.'s first colored pupil, is dead. George W. Benson is now living on a farm near Lawrence, Kans.
